Gaza Ex-Governor, Family Leave

LYDDA AIRPORT, Saturday.

— The former Egyptian Governor of Gaza, Gen. Mohammed Digwi, his wife and three daughters left for home by UNEF plane yesterday. They were accompanied by an Egyptian Army doctor, Col. Michel Garrace.

The party reached the airport in pouring rain by ambulance from Tel Hashomer Hospital. The General and his doctor got out of the vehicle to drink a cup of coffee together with some Israel Army officers, while Mrs. Digwi and the girls stayed behind by order of the Red Cross representative, Dr. Louis Gailland. Mrs. Digwi reseatly underwent an operation here.

Gen. Digwi refused to talk to the press, confining himself to conversation with the accompanying Israel Army officers. Dr. Garrace, formerly of the Gaza hospital, who had been present at Mrs. Digwi's operation, spoke highly of the Israel authorities' treatment of the sick woman. The General and his daughters were quartered in a nearby room, until she had recuperated enough to travel. Asked to comment, the doctor said. The problem is settled, and T am going home. Mrs. Digwi still remain in Sharm e-shelich, Dr. Gailland told the press.

CITRUS WRAPPERS UNNECESSARY IN CARGAL CARTONS!

HERE ARE FACTS NOT JUST WORDS! Now for the third successive season we have been telling citrus packers in Israel .hat there is no need to wrap citrus with paper in diphenyled Cargai Cartons. The Report of Dr. Littauer, reproduced below, made public at the 4th International Congress of Mediterranean Citrus Growers, confirms that diphenyled Cargal Cartons protect the citrus without wrappers better. There is 50% less wastage when unwrapped citrus is packed in diphenyled Cargal Cartons.

An American Professor brought to Israel by the Citrus Marketing Board in 1985 reported the following: "Both on the continent and in England a careful inquiry indicated a more than favourable attitude towards the elimination of wraps."

We have just received the following report from Messrs. Marks and Spencer, largest retailer in England. Here is what this buyer says: -

"1221 CARTONS OF JAFFA ORANGES SHIPPED ON THE "PANDORIAN," "ALCA" AND "BRIGITTE TOFT" ARRIVED IN CARTONS WHICH WERE DIPHENYL TREATED (UNWRAPPED). AND THE FRUIT LOOKED BRIGHTER, MORE APPETIZING AND POSSESSED MORE COLOUR THAN THE ORDINARY WRAPPED FRUIT AND WAS WASTE

Steel-Huiled Trawler 'Kadesh'

Jerusalem Post Reporter

HAIFA, Saturday, — The first steel-huiled fishing trawler made in Israel, the 115-ton Kadesh, was launched yesterday by Mrs. Rachel Look, wife of the Minister of Agriculture.

Mrs. Loos broke a bottle of champagne on the boat's prow wishing the trawler the traditional 'Good speed' as it glided down the slipway.

The driving rain washed out any additional estemony and no speeches were made as the guests scuttled for shelter under h in of lighters and launches being repaired in the yard.

The Kadesh, named after the Sinal Campaign (Mivtan Kadesh), is one of five identical trawlers ordered from the Hayama Shipyard. She is Zi metrae long and will have a crew of eight. Built from steel plates and equipment brought from Germany, the trawler has a single 150 hp. imported diesel motor. She will be fitted with modern navigation aids.

Her price is only a little higher than that paid for ismillar trawlers bought in Germany, the Koor Company spokesman stated. Her "added and value," however, amounts to about 50 per cent.

Construction was basity handicapped by the fact that Hayama's yard is laland in the Bayside area, over 10 kms. from the Port.

There is no reason to sup-pose that he will be any more successful in obtaining Egyptian compliance with the Armistice than he was last spring. for Phote and Orchestra; Tanshaman: Sinfonia Piecela; Basiberen: Symphony Ro. 7 in A. I AVRY'S "Israel Country Dances" rank among the composer's more unassuming and, therefore, comparatively agreeable works. Without being particularly original, they still are rhythmically aive and skiifully though somewhat heavily orchestrated. The Flute Concerto by Jolivet consists mainly of acrobatics for this instrument, made palatable by that quality which allegedly comes naturally to a Frenchman—charm. They are written in a style that does not go very far beyond Debussy.

As for Tansman, he appears to be a contemporary in time rather than in style. His Sinfonia Piccola sounds quite conservative, arousing occasional interest by alert rhythms.

Hanoch Tel Oren accomplished his difficult task in the Jolivet with skill and facility. Ze'sv Pri'el conducted authoritatively and with fine musicianship, without any attempts at impressing the autience by a superfluous display of originality or by surprise effects. In fact, the orchestra vas guided so securely through the intricacies of the works and sounded so well that one could not help wondering why a conductor so serious in his approach should appear in public so seldom.

PARLIAMENTARY REPORT

Afghans' Problems' Mr. Sapir's Private Nightmare

mises to carry out.

Mr. Pinhae Sapir, Minister of Trade and Industry, fresh from a trip to the United States during which he received no encouragement whatever to expect any immediate resumption of large-scale American aid, sounded no more than sober in his account of last year's work and next year's plans. The trade gap has been his private nightmare for a number of years and the knowledge that the means to tide ut over may no longer be available at least cannot surprise him. He knows that the trouble cannot be cured in a year, and did not indulge in any dire threats of immediate disaster if the impossible were not achieved overnight.

THE answer to Mr. Eshkol's problem is a very unpleasant one, and while it is possible to postpone it the parties can play the game of insulting each other. Herut says the fault lies with the Histadrut corporate system.

Comedy of Interest

TF there are elements of high tragedy and a desert of wasted opportunities looming ahead in the budget debate, there is little but low comedy in the Law for the Limitation of Interest. Nobody believes in it, yet nobody votes against a ban on exorbitant interest? Usury is immoral. The taking of any interest is banned by Jewish law, though not many popules seem to know it. The banks at least can be stopped from taking interest that is so high that it makes production non-competitive on world markets for people who must use this dear money. Then what money will they use? Money found secretly on the black market, wrapped in dirty paper like a piece of smuggled, is illegal pork? After all, you can enforce rent restriction for tenants safely ensconced in their flats and houses, but all the laws and policemen could not prevent landlords from taking key-money from a man with no roof over his head. Shall we have keymoney for loans?

future intentions. Al Harmshmar (Mapam) underscores the importance of not giving up the Strip; Habeker (General Zionist) calls for an immediate protest to the U.N. Nothing concrete can come from such a step, since General Burns will claim that the case is outside his terms of reference, the Yugoslava, Indonesians and Indians in the UNEF are hostile to Israel, and Russia's veto would make any Security Council action against Egypt impossible, but a protest would keep the record straight and world opinion informed.

Davag (Histadrut) notes that the Rafah mining and the trumpeted supply to Egypt of Soviet submarines, which could not be used against anything except Israel shipping, are ample proof of Cairo's intentions. The extent to which the world is out to ignore these, however, is well illustrated by the promise of the head of the Middle Eastern Division of the State Department to "investigate" the charge that Egypt's persecution of her Jews is planned with the help of Nazi experts.

Regretting Mr. Avraham Rutenberg's decision to resign as Managing Director of the Palestine Electric Corporation, which he has served so brilliantly, Hà'arets (non-party) protests the Ministry of Development's policy of using the PEC as a guinea pig in co-opting workers' representatives to the management, demanding that the Histadrut try out such a risky policy on its own industry before it is applied to such a vital enterprise, It is had enough that the nationalization of the PEC has already cost the nation IL25m. although there was no need for it, since its former own-ars were always able to attract the capital they resic mainly leans on two of his great predecessors and one of his contemporaries. The second work is a great favourite with the public and the planist alike, for Pnina Salzman unfailingly puts it on her bill at least once a season.
